"MICHAELMAN" Now On Campus

As the MICHAELMAN began its ninth year of publication last week, it did so with two major changes having been made since the final issue came out last spring. The constitution of the weekly has been re-written. The paper has also moved on campus - that is, the make-up of the paper is now done entirely in the MICHAELMAN offices in Aquinas Hall by members of the staff.

The Editor attended the 8th United States National Student Association Congress during August of this year, and there attempted to learn as much as possible about other college presses. He benefited greatly from the experience, and is attempting to improve the paper with this knowledge.

CONSTITUTIONAL CHANGES

Changes in the constitution were made to strengthen the Editor's position. It more clearly delineates subordinate positions, so that authority and responsibility may be passed down more easily.

The Editorial Board, long having existed only on paper, is now actively participating in formulating the paper's editorial policy. It also serves as the governing body in electing each year's Editor-in-Chief.

The re-location back on campus was made possible through the co-operation of the Director of Student Activities and the Business Office. The former supplied the money for materials, the latter provided office space and furniture.

GOALS OF THE PAPER

This year's immediate goal is to produce a weekly six or eight page paper. A larger Student Council allocation, a larger advertising budget, and more paid subscriptions, combined with a lower cost per page should allow the staff to meet this goal.

All planning to date by the present staff has been done with one ultimate goal in mind - to provide the paper with depth. This can only come about through a combination of good organization, proper administration, training, money and facilities.

Enrollment Up For This Year

A bumper crop of 251 Frosh has caused an increase of 8.6% over last year's enrollment total. This rise is based on full-time students in the four classes. Total students now attending the Hilltop number 727. This does not include some 50 cadet nurses and 25 foreign students.

New York State now ranks as the state represented by the most Michaelmen. The number of Empire Staters has risen from 175 students last year to 210 this year. The second place state is Vermont. 187 men hail from the Green Mt. State, an increase of 10 over last year. Mass. now is the third best represented state with a total of 173, a drop of four from last year.

Though total enrollment is higher this year than last, no one was refused admission for lack of dormitory space.

STUDENT COUNCIL CLOSES DOORS

Our Student Council started off the year on Tuesday night by holding a "closed meeting" immediately following the opening Council session. Pres. Bredenberg used his power as expressed in the constitution to call a closed meeting at his discretion. A few Council members objected to this procedure but most seemed content to follow the leader underground. Following is the report of the "open" meeting:

Bredenberg read a letter from Thomas Kenney, Assistant

AdlerTo Address VEA Here

Mortimer J. Adler, educator, philosopher and author, is scheduled to speak at the Vermont Education Association Convention to be held in Burlington, October 13 and 14.

Renowned for his leadership in the revival of the study of Artistotle and St. Thomas, he was also a pioneer in the restoration of great books to the college curriculum. At present, he is a professor of the philosophy of law at the University of Chicago.

NEO-THOMIST

A man of many talents, Adler is an authority in Thomistic philosophy. He is also well-versed in the realms of education and history. His literary accomplishments, place him among the nation's foremost scholars.

Although of the Jewish faith, his thinking and writing support Catholicism, and he is a member of the Catholic Philosophers of America.

AUTHOR

His volume "How to Read a Book," one of the few he has written for the common man, was a best seller. In this work he admits he did not know how to read correctly and began to study to discover the proper method. He came to the conclusion that any book worth reading must be read three times - for analysis, interpretation and evaluation.

The claim of the average college student that such and such a book is "over my head" is nonsense according to Adler. In "How to Read a Book" he states that anyone of normal intelligence can understand a book. He says, "The technique of proper reading elevates one's head to things formerly over one's head."

Shakespeare Coming Soon

Naomi Vincent, left, and Jeanne Davis are two of the stars of Players Incorporated from Washington who give "Much Ado About Nothing" on Monday, Oct. 17, and "King Lear," Oct. 18 in Memorial Auditorium under St. Michael's Auspices. Student tickets are $1 at the bookstore.

Players Inc. of Washington, D.C., will present Shakespeare's "King Lear" and "Much Ado About Nothing" in Memorial Auditorium at 8:30 P.M. on Monday, October 17, and Tuesday, October 18. Reduced ticket prices of $1.00 areavailable to students.

Few Michaelmen have had the opportunity to view the efforts of Players Inc., though they have been on campus regularly for the past few years. Only this summer they had one of their most successful seasons at St. Michael's with productions including "The Man Who Came to Dinner" and "Sabrina Fair."

During the past seven years, the company has travelled all over the United States, Korea, Japan, and Europe. They have given more than 700 performances of the great works of Shakespeare, Shaw and Moliere.

All members of the company are former students of the

YOUR COUNCIL... WHOSE REPRESENTATIVES?

Under our present Student Council constitution, a member of the student body, after successfully campaigning for a one-year term on the S.C., may find himself given a second year without having to go before his class again and be re-elected.

All class presidents, upon being elected are guaranteed a two-year term on the council, regardless of their classmates' decision as to their ability at the end of the first year.

A class allowed one, two, three, or four representatives on the council must, nevertheless, elect six men, from whom the particular number allowed is finally chosen by an "electoral committee," composed of FOUR faculty and administration members, and THREE students.

With these thoughts in mind, does it seem strange that NOWHERE IN THE " PURPOSES " OF THE COUNCIL CONSTITUTION DOES IT MENTION ANYTHING CONCERNING THE DEMOCRATIC TRADITION?

In the first two cases, a man who turns out to be unworthy of the position, is nevertheless guaranteed a second year, without having to get a vote of confidence from those whom he represents.

In the third case, the final decision is taken entirely out of the hands of the particular class and given to the Electoral Committee.

This form of representation is ostensibly to guarantee the council smooth continuity as each year, at least, six of last year's council must return. ACTUALLY IT IS SO MUCH MALARKEY!

It produces a group of untouchables, who upon election are guaranteed a dominating position for, at least one-half of their college life.

Let's get back to the American system, where election for a one-year term means just that and no more. Let's leave the decision as to who will represent a class in the hands of the class. The days of political aristocracy have ended - let's catch up with the times.

SUNDAY'S SERMON

Our President, Very Rev. Francis E. Moriarty, S.S.E., is to be commended on his critical self-analysis Sunday, when he pointed out that "St. Michael's is no exception " to the practice now prevalent in higher education "of attempting to relieve the student's boredom with an endless round of inferior activities which only intensify what they attempt to relieve."

Dates Announced For Law Exams

The Law School Admission Test required of applicants for admission to many leading American law schools, will be held at U.V.M. on four Saturday mornings during the coming year. The first test will be given November 12, with the others following on February 18, April 21, and August 11, 1956.

Each candidate should make separate application for admission to the law school of his choice and should inquire whether it wishes him to take the test and when. Many schools desire the applicant to take either the November or February tests if possible, because they select their freshman classes in the spring preceding their entrance.

Bulletins and applications for the test should be obtained four to six weeks in advance of the desired testing date. They may be had by writing Law School Admission Test, Educational Testing Service, 20 Nassau Street, Princeton, N.J.

THE MAILBOX

Campus Poets:

All college students are cordially invited to submit original verse to be considered for possible publication in the Annual Anthology of College Poetry.

This is the Thirteenth Annual College Competition. The recognition afforded by publication will reflect definite credit on the author, as well as your school. Over a hundred thousand mss. have been submitted to the National Poetry Association in the past 10 years. Of these, about 4,500 have been accepted for publication.

Rules are simple--as follows: Mss. must be typed or written in ink on one side of a sheet. Student's home address, name of College and College address must appear on each mss.

Students may submit as many mss. as is desired. Theme and form may be in accordance with the wish of the student contributor. In order to give as many students as possible an opportunity for recognition, and because of space limitations - shorter efforts are preferred.

Closing date for submission of manuscripts: Nov. 5.

Send manuscripts to:
National Poetry Association
3210 Selby Avenue,
Los Angeles 34, Calif.

SKI ENTHUSIASTS

In what is believed to be the first ascent of Mt. Mansfield for the academic year 1955-56, six sanguine "Michaelmen " took to the craggy heights of Vermont's " Everest " this Saturday past.

Representing the Outing Club, the "sorti " consisted of Juniors Larry Austin, Phil Howrigan and Art Kirwin; Sophomore Jack Keating and, newly inducted "Frosh " Leo Flanagan and "Flo " Menninger.

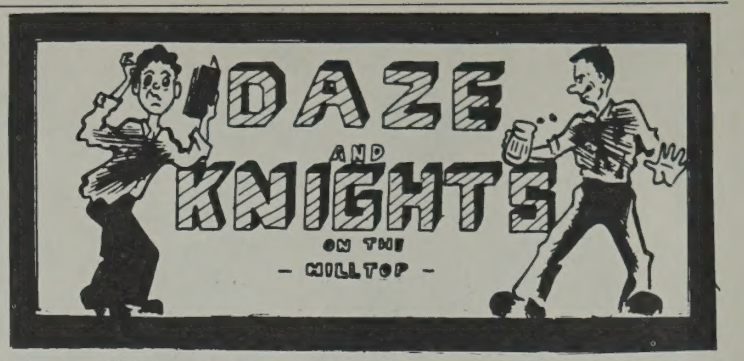
Primary objective: To look into the condition of Taft Lodge, a cabin nestled high in the Alpine grandeur of New England's second highest peak, for future winter skiing expeditions.

Weather conditions: Tempestuous winds, murky fog and temperature around 35°.

Conclusions: Cabin in good shape, food tastes great after a climb, a good time, if a bit tiring.

There's a book around, titled Banned Books, by Anne Lyon Haight, that has just been reissued by the Bowker Company. It is subtitled Trends in Censorship from Homer to Hemingway. You probably get the idea. But you can't get the idea of how fascinating it really is. For example, turn to Dodgson and you'll see that "Alice's Adventures " was banned in China on the ground that "Animals should not use human language." Or take Hemingway's "A Farewell to Arms " - banned in Italy because of the painfully accurate account of the Italian retreat from Caporetto. And in East Berlin Walt Disney's "Mickey Mouse " was banned because Mickey was classified not as a comic but as an anti-Communist.

There are as many reasons for censorship as there are for fears in the world. There are, no doubt, books that curdle the blood and these have no rational reason for being. What we think is valuable in the book we are talking about, though, is precisely that it teaches us to be skeptical about our own indignations, and above all to put our trust in our legal apparatus and our democratic give-and-take.



How edifying it is to see the new edifice in development - the day by day progress towards our second dormitory. The enthusiasm shown in this project has been most outstanding; especially displayed by the thirteen faculty members who were over, looking for a job. If all goes as well as it has been, residences should be ready for the fall of 1956. In the minds of those studying under the Integration Plan, there is not a doubt as to what the new dorm shall be named. It will be called, of course, St. Thomas Hall. There will be a life-size statue of him at the entrance of the building. All the occupants of the hall will be required to wear sandals (to maintain the proper atmosphere). In this renown structure, paper, instead of paint, shall cover the walls. Father Herrouet, is busy printing the " Summa " on wallpaper to appropriately display our ultimate beliefs. The marble corner stone of this masterpiece shall read;

Oh, St. Thomas, Thomas Aquinas
our life's destiny didst spring from thou,
Receive this token of deep devotion as we dedicate, with our heads in bow.

Prayers are requested for the repose of the mind of Jack Thompson who will become a victim of the altar this October. Another Michaelman bites the dust!

Late Saturday evening some defiant individual sat his frame on the Dean of Men's porch with a can of evil liquid in his hand. Father grabbed him by the back of his neck - and his head fell off. Now, how did that scarecrow make it all the way from the Trinity Dance?

Joe McCann is back as you've probably noticed. It seems he's of the belief, that if you can't beat'um, you've gotta join 'um!

Anyone want a good haircut? Joe Haley is your man. Only sixty cents a head (his roommate collects ear lobes). The operating room is St. James #112.

Hans Oppersdorf is back on campus - and in good spirits, we might add. He spent his entire summer vacation roaming the woods of Maine. He'll never change!

If any fans of Headwaiter Ryan are conspiring again this year, forget it, it's no use. He's wearing a bulletproof vest this year. (J. Eaton finds nature has provided for his well-being - ten more pounds this summer).

Once again Mrs. Dufrense has been arrested by the F.B.I. for a violation of the Pure Food and Drugs Act. It all began when several students were mysteriously blowing bubbles outside the Dining Hall. Immediately authorities were contacted and the investigation was underway. The following noon, an agent (disguised in Bro. Josaphat's cassock) caught her dumping a box of Cheer into the daily soup. She was taken in custody and a thousand dollar bail was posted.

Hoping that your study habits are of the elevated essence, I remain

SMC Still Family Style

As the new school year begins it is interesting to note that nine families now have two "Michaelmen" on campus. Their home towns are located throughout the New England area and in New York state. This is becoming one of the finest Saint Michael's traditions.

NEW YORK

Don and Jim Kinneston are New York's contribution to this tradition. Don, a pre-dental student, was a three-year man in baseball and basketball in high school. Here, on campus, he is a member of the Outing and Glee Clubs. Jim graduated from high school in 1949. In high school he participated in baseball and basketball for four years. A year at Champlain College and four in the Air Force preceded his enrollment at Saint Michael's.

VERMONT

Hailing from Barre, Vermont, the granite center of the world, are Richard and Francis Pinard, Spaulding High graduates of the Class of 1955. At Spaulding, they ranked very high scholasticly and were active in extra-curricular activities. They have long been planning to enter St. Michael's together. Richard is taking the Pre-Theology course and Francis is a Business Administration Concentrator.

Douglas and Glen Good hail from Montpelier, Vermont. Both attended St. Michael's High School in the capitol city. Glen, who spent a year at Vermont Junior College, is now a senior here and is majoring in Business Administration. He was active in basketball in high school. Doug also played basketball in high school. He is concentrating in Mathematics.

NEW HAMPSHIRE

Jim DesRoches, an economics major from Charlestown, New Hampshire, has followed in the footsteps of his brother, Bob. Jim was a member of the Student Council and played baseball and basketball at Charlestown High. Bob is coaching the senior class football team this fall and has played both interclass and intra-mural sports.

CONNECTICUT

Portland, Connecticut brothers, Dean and Ray McNulty, came to St. Michael's expressly for a good Catholic education. Dean and Ray are both Sociology majors. Both played high school baseball and soccer. Dean was on the high school yearbook staff and a member of the rifle team. Roy, a senior on the Hilltop, won the Middlesex County batting championship with a .466 average during his days at Portland High.

Donald Sprafke, Meriden, Connecticut's representative here, joins his Sophomore brother here. Donald, a Sociology major, was on the football, swimming and tennis teams in high school and intends to be active in the Outing Club and the "Michaelman." His brother, Robert, is in the two-year course. He came to St. Michael's to get a well-rounded Catholic education.

This tradition of "keeping it in the family" is a credit to the college. But if anyone wants to meet the record holder in this category, he should talk to senior Jack Brannon. He is presently keeping alive a tradition that has been with this family for over thirty years.

MASSACHUSETTS

The first brother act from Massachusetts is made up of Albert and Joseph Brault. Albert, a husky 18-year old Freshman, graduated from Cathedral High School in Springfield, Mass., as did his brother three years earlier. Joe, a procter on Ryan II, was in the cast of "Stalag 17" and has participated in many other activities on campus. Albert intends to play interclass football and join the Glee Club.

The Lennon boys, John and Paul, are graduates of Woburn High School. Here, they made reputations as leaders in sports and scholastic activities. John, a procter on Old Hall IV, played fullback for the class of '56. In high school he participated in baseball, basketball and the Glee Club. Paul was President of his senior class and captain of the basketball team which won the Northeastern Conference championship. He is enrolled in the Pre-Dental course and plans to play Intra-mural basketball.

Tom Murphy, of Pittsfield, Mass., was active in his high school Student Council, Debating Club and Glee Club, as well as representing his school at Boys State. He joins his brother, Mr. Edward Murphy of our English Department, who is also Moderator of the Debating Club.

KNIGHTS TO PLAY 22 GAMES

Two newcomers and the return of Brandeis University and Creighton to the schedule highlights an ambitious 22 game schedule for the '55-'56 St. Michael's basketball team. U of Mass. and Merrimack are the new opponents. West Point has been dropped from the schedule after a three-year series. Coach George " Doc " Jacobs boys will be at home for 10 of the games, and on the road for the remaining 12.

SEASON OPENER AT HOME

Newcomer Merrimack will open the "Purple Knights " season here at home on the 8th of December. The Knights will then travel to Syracuse to encounter LeMoyne. They will return to Burlington the following night for the Fairfield game.

Holy Cross at Worcester will be the start of the Knight's Annual Christmas trip. Following this will be games with Adelphi and St. Peter's on enemy courts. Possibilities that the Knights will participate in a Xmas Tournament are still in the talking stage.

STATE CAMPAIGN BEGINS

Following the Christmas break the Knights return home to play the Catamounts of Vermont on the 4th of January. The "Jacobmen " again hit the road to play U. of Mass. Three state encounters will follow the short road trip as Norwich will be met twice and Middlebury once inside a week.

After the second Norwich game the Knights will take a ten-day respite before they travel to meet Northeastern. Colby will close out the month of January here at home.

In February the Knights will go to bat 9 times. Highlight of this busy month will be the yearly Boston Garden game, providing the opposition in this encounter will be returnee Brandeis. Another feature of this month is the appearance of Adelphi. Last season the Knights only met Adelphi in New York. This year a home and home series has been arranged.

LEMANOWICZ HEADS VETERANS

High scoring Tom Lemanowicz will head a cast that will include six veterans and a promising crop of newcomers up from the Freshman squad. Gone from last year's team are Captain Bob Bolster, high-scoring Bobbie Young, and scrappy Dick Spreer.

First stringers Bernie Cieplicki, Bill Kuchar and John Wegrzynski will be on hand to aid Lemanowicz. Counted on heavily to take up the slack caused by Young's departure, will be Soph's Drew Denmead, Dan O'Sullivan, Joe Spychalsky, and Frank McCaffrey. All four were members of last year's undefeated Frosh team.

The Schedule:

December: 1, Merrimack; 10, LeMoyne at Syracuse; 11, Fairfield; 14, Holy Cross at Worcester; 16, Adelphi at Garden City; 17, St. Peter's at Jersey City. January: 4, Vermont; 7, Massachusetts at Amherst; 11, Norwich at Northfield; 14, Middlebury; 18, Norwich; 28, Northeastern at Boston; 31, Colby. February: 3, Vermont at Burlington; 5, Creighton; 9, Clarkson; 11, A.I.C.; 13, Brandeis at Boston; 16, St. Lawrence at Canton; 22, Middlebury at Middlebury; 24, Adelphi; 29, St. Anselm's at Manchester.

AlumniToSee Class Teams

On Oct. 3 the Interclass football league will officially get underway as the Juniors will do battle with the Seniors. The game will also serve as a feature for the annual Homecoming Weekend. Alumni football enthusiasts will have their appetites well satisfied as on the following day the Sophs meet the Frosh.

In last year's meeting the principles fought to a 6-6 deadlock. Both teams are preparing to better this mark. Pre-season forecasters have indicated that this game may well decide the championship. But don't count out Sunday's foes. It would be safest to say "it's anyone's title."

SENIORS READY

Player-coach, Bob DesRoches of the Seniors, is surrounded by a well-seasoned squad. Back again are Tim Foley, Paul Provasoli and John Lennon to spearhead the attack. Up front Don Cook, Ted Yates and Ray Garland form the bulk of the line. The Seniors received another pleasant surprise when Fran Pandicio returned to action. Fran is a highly touted back.

Twenty candidates have been working out regularly with the Juniors. Coaches Bob Caprio and Ron Mastroberadino are well pleased with their veteran squad. To bolster the returnees are newcomers Chick Hennigan, Ace Gennari, and Buddy McCulloch. Chick is a guard aspirant while the latter two are both fleet-footed backs. Ray Jaques, Jack Dwyer and Jay Tierney should run well out of the straight T and single-wing type of offenses. In the forward wall Fran Wallace, Jim Walsh and Jim McCormick are counted on heavily. Added depth on the bench won't hurt the Juniors either.

FROSH PROMISING

Prospects for the Frosh look promising. Jerry Cronan, the Freshman mentor, has the largest amount of material to work with. So far Jerry has been stressing condition. He has several candidates who have been impressive. Jim McNally, and Bill Stallworth are two backs who loom as definite threats. On the line Danny Lamoureux, Neal Shea and Ned Fisk will more than hold their own when festivities begin.

MANPOWER DESIRED

Coach Jack Coffey is showing great concern about the lack of enthusiasm and attendance at the Soph drills. However, Jack is well pleased with the candidates on hand. Backs Ed Cashman and Tom Sylvester are back and ready to go. Jim Breagy heads the list of line candidates. Jack urges that the Sophs respond to his appeal and turn out for practice. All positions are open and the manpower is desired.

SAILORS MEET NEXT WEEK

The St. Michael's College Sailing Team opened its fall slate of activities last Monday when it held its first regular meeting.

A fine turnout of between 20-25 students showed that interest in sailing on the Hilltop was running high this year. Co-Commodores Ed Hughes and Marius Peladeau conducted the meeting and explained the new policy of the team, its fall racing schedule and changes in the team since the group disbanded last spring.

With the first meeting less than two weeks away, plans were formulated to try and make each of the eight regattas in which the team will take part this fall, as successful as possible.

Co-Commodore Peladeau explained that the team had been given a committee boat this past summer through the kindness of a friend of the SMC Sailing Team. The members were also told that for the first time in the history of the team an Interclass sailing competition would be held with prizes and trophies being donated by Fr. Duford as in all other Interclass activities.

Team finances, the condition of the boats, and the team's stand in the New England Intercollegiate Sailing Association were also explained at the meeting.

With two boats ready for sailing on the team's home port of Malletts Bay this weekend, practices for the fall have already been started as the Knight sailors try to make this year a real banner season.

The sailing team's fall schedule:
Saturday, Oct. 8:
Quadrangular at Middlebury;
Sunday, Oct. 9:
Triangular at S.M.C.;
Saturday, Oct. 15:
Frosh eliminations at MIT;
Saturday, Oct. 22:

Campus baseball fans are grimly holding on as the 1955 World Series comes to a close, but baseball is just a memory to the 100 plus Interclass football candidates. Drills began in earnest last week are slowly gaining momentum as unused muscles accustom themselves to their daily torture. With the opening game only a week away, time is at a premium. Already the squads are shaping their offense. Calisthenics and fundamentals are, of course, a necessity, but sharing equal billing with them are the finer points. This early in the game it is hard to make an accurate forecast on the future. Both the Juniors and the Seniors are almost intact from last year. The Sophomores seem to be reduced considerably in number if nothing else. There remains our newest Michaelmen, the Frosh. From all reports they may well prove to be the " sleeper " this year. Bolstered by the largest turnout of the four classes, they seem deep in almost every position, particularly the backfield. Coach Jerry Cronan isn't making any brash predictions, but he seems the happiest member of our coaching staff. We shall see?

Basketball fans should be well pleased with this year's schedule. Students will be able to see the Purple Knights in action at least ten times. This is an improvement of four over last year. Another feature this year will be the Holy Cross game. Worcester area students will be on their Xmas vacation and will have no trouble making this one. Once again the team will be making their annual pilgrimage to the "Big City." Hardwood quiz kids are already contemplating what effect the widening of the foul lanes will have on the Knights this year. We see it as an asset. In the past our big men have been unusually mobile. This season should prove no different. One competent authority advanced the theory that the zone defense will gain new stature with the extension. This idea will require some concentration. With Dec. 8 so far off we shall not delve into anything quite so deep.

Sporting it.....Don Casavant, last year's Ski coach, is now doing graduate work at the University of Vermont. He is aspiring for his Masters in Physics.....Never saw the Red Sox fans on campus so happy. "Wait till next year " no longer is just an empty idea. It is stated with quite a degree of authority. One wonders if the "Colonel " no longer thinks of Ted Williams as just so much dead-wood to Mike Higgins "youth movement ".... 1950 grad, Gerry Healy, now doing sports publicity at the U of Mass. Gerry reports that there are 115 athletes on three varsity athletic teams (football, cross country and soccer) at the Bay State school, and all are from the home state.....Dean Academy has announced that Sal Lombardo will be the new grid coach and athletic director. Sal served as an assistant to Doc Jacobs in 1954.....A true pioneer of our sailing teams has returned to the Hilltop. Andy Fisher, '54, is back for his Masters in education. No doubt Andy is well pleased in the progress made by our sailors. If not the largest group on campus, they certainly are the most energetic...

Seniors To Have A Ball !

Last Tuesday the Senior Class showed itself in full strength at the first class meeting of the new academic year. The meeting was begun by Henry O'Connor, Senior Class President, who welcomed all the Seniors back. The purpose of this early meeting was to acquaint all with the function of our Placement Office as described by Mr. Kenney, Assistant to the President of St. Michael's, and a talk was given by Father Dupont, Dean of Studies, on the academic situation.

"BE PREPARED"

Mr. Kenney emphasized that the new seniors must realize that they are Seniors and will soon be alumni. Many of those to graduate in June can not afford Graduate School and have military service ahead of them but this, as stressed by Mr. Kenney, is no reason not to prepare for a career. As the draft situation stands now many, on completion of college, will have to wait from six to eight months before Uncle Sam can take them. With this in mind, the Placement Office has enlarged its facilities to accommodate every senior. Personal interviews with Mr. Kenney and various company representatives will commence sometime in the latter part of October. As industry today wants well prepared personnel it is left up to the individual to have a resume of his qualifications and fill out the Placement sheets as directed by Mr. Simas.

FATHER DUPONT SPEAKS

The high point of the meeting came when Father Dupont, Academic Dean, addressed the class. The question of exemptions has been on the lips of everyone all of last year and the beginning of this year but it is no longer a question for Father Dupont stated that, beginning with the Class of '56, there will be no exemptions. He could see no reason why exemptions are necessary for they originated when graduation immediately followed the last examination, which is no longer the case. With a full year course the examination is an intrinsic part of that course. Everything must start somewhere and it is just unfortunate that the Class of '56 had to be the first victim of this program. Needless to say, not one senior left the meeting with a smile on his face.

BALL PLANNED

Mr. O'Connor announced that the Senior Ball will take place October 29 but the location is not yet definite. Oggie Dodge and Don Cook were named co-chairmen. A meeting to set-up various committees is scheduled for the early part of next week.

SMC HISTORY

was six months in the actual writing but it dates back almost to the turn of the century and contains articles about former presidents, faculty members and many others who have contributed to the rise of St. Michael's to make it the college it is today.

FORMER PRESIDENTS

"St. Michael's Through The Years," as the book is appropriately named, contains excerpts about previous presidents, and revives them and their contributions to the College. Their accomplishments have been pinpointed and preserved for posterity. Inserted in the center-fold of this book are photos of St. Michael's from "Vermont Life" to which John Donoghue, Public Relations Director, has contributed an eight-page article. The text is on the factual side without any attempt at popularization.

MUCH WORK INVOLVED

Fr. Maloney and Dr. Durick, joint authors, also point out that St. Michael's started with very little and has built itself into its present status which has been quite an achievement.

To write a book of this nature takes a great deal of research, checking of records, newspapers and reviewing of other publications. Dates of former president's administrations, names of previous faculty members and numerous other facts that go into composing a book of this nature must be checked and rechecked, even if they have appeared in print before.

In 1953, Dr. Durick and Father Maloney collaborated in compiling a history of the diocese of Burlington for the centenary observance of the diocese of Burlington.

The book, a joint effort of Father Maloney, librarian, and Dr. Durick, head of the English department contains approximately one-hundred and fifty pages and is being published by the George Little Press, Inc., in Burlington.

famous Speech and Drama department of Catholic University. This department is under the direction of Father Gilbert Hartke, O.P., one of the most prominent figures in the American theater today.

Goal of Players Inc. is to bring back to the American scene the travelling repertory company. Many outstanding theatrical personalities have long lamented the death of the road companies. By pioneering anew, the Players have revitalized a theater too long centered in one city.

COUNCIL.

to Fr. Moriarty, who expressed his appreciation and that of the administration for the outstanding job done by members of the Council during Freshman Week.

ASSIGNMENTS

Jack Eaton, Dick Bousquet and Joe Lee were assigned to the Club Status Committee which functions as a check on all the campus clubs and assures that they meet S.C. requirements. Because the Radio Club is not as yet eligible for representation in the Student Council, George Latimer and Bill Leahy were assigned as Council representatives to that organization.

REPORT RENDERED

Bredenberg discussed at some length a prepared report he drew up after attending the United States Student Association National Congress which was held in Minneapolis, Minn., during August of this year. Tom Leavitt, editor of the MICHAELMAN, also attended the Congress. Both were very highly impressed with the efficient activities and well chosen subject-matter that was discussed. Each expressed the opinion that St. Michael's should definitely join the NSA. Each also assured the Council that the trip was well worth the expense undertaken by the College and guaranteed that, from their experience, the student body would benefit this year.

President Bredenberg announced that the budget for the Council may be ready for the next Council meeting.

FLYNN

John D. Donoghue is official moderator.

Flynn also revealed plans for a massive photo contest open to all students with prizes to be awarded. The editor said that plans this year called for a greater number of pictures than in past years. To accomplish this it was decided that a huge photo contest would be the best way to bring a flock of pictures into the yearbook office.

Plans for the book were not as yet complete, but Flynn said that more emphasis would be placed on interclass activities and the Freshman, Sophomore and Junior classes.

A national advertising department will be established by the staff to supplement the Shield's budget. For the first time in the history of the yearbook, Flynn said that an attempt would be made to use more color than in past years.

Since plans were still in the incomplete state because it's so early in the year, Flynn said that much ground work has to be finished before actual work can be started.

Msgr Crowley Speaks at DES Banquet

The occasion of the annual Delta Epsilon Sigma induction ceremonies, which took place Thursday night in Austin Hall, was highlighted by an address from the Right Rev. Msgr. Crowley entitled "Marching Orders From The Prince of Peace."

His speech before the new inductees into the National Catholic Honorary Society and the assembled guests described in detail the aims of Catholic education.

But, as the Monsignor carefully pointed out, the aims are of little value if the means for implementing them are non-existent. It is in the institutions of Catholic higher learning and their graduate products that the best means for realizing these aims are found, the monsignor continued.

After outlining the role of the Catholic college graduate in society, Monsignor Crowley closed with the expression of the hope that the lights which found their ignition during these years of Catholic education would not "be hidden under a bushel" nor suffer themselves to be extinguished by the breath of time.

Juniors Plan Communion Breakfast

A communion breakfast for the members of the Junior Class will be held on Sunday, October 2, at the Lincoln Inn, in Essex Junction. This, the first of a series of Junior Class projects planned this year, was announced at the first Junior Class meeting by Bob Donoghue, Junior President.

Tickets to the breakfast will cost $1.00 and entitles the purchaser to all he wants to eat. Attendance of 100 Juniors is anticipated.

The Junior Prom to be held in May was discussed, mostly regarding the financial problem involved. A jazz concert may be held on campus, November 11, for the purpose of publicizing and financing the weekend. A raffle may be conducted later in the year.

HOMECOMING

game a Coffee Hour reception will be held in the Library. The Annual Alumni dinner and Homecoming dance will be at Oakledge Manor. Presentations will be made to the outstanding alumni of the year. The Alumni Memorial Mass and Communion Breakfast will mark the close of Homecoming.

This weekend is primarily for the alumni, but student participation is encouraged. The student body can lend the Espirit de corps, but that isn't enough. Mr. Kenney hopes to have a part of the Glee Club sing at the Registration Get-together and also at the Award dinner. Mr. Kenney welcomes the Sodality's participation in the Mass and Communion Breakfast. A trophy is given to the hall that makes the best display welcoming the alumni. Last year, Old Hall, third floor, won the contest with a heroic size statue of the Purple Knight.

Mr. Kenney especially stresses student participation in making the weekend a success. He says, "I hope the student body will lend organized support to the program. I would like to see a large segment of the students at the game cheering for the team of their choice."

Something New Has Been Added

For the first time in its fifty-year history St. Michael's welcomed to its campus this fall three young ladies who will study here during the regular academic year. The girls, Louise Vanasse, from Val D'or, Quebec, Estelle Sirois, from Madawaska County, New Brunswick, and Gabrielle Riendeau, from Montreal, are enrolled in the program of English for Foreign Students under the direction of Mr. Ernest Boulay. A fourth girl from Venezuela has also been accepted for the course but has not yet arrived. Miss Vanasse and Miss Sirois are studying Elementary English, a fifteen-week course while Miss Riendeau, a Registered Nurse, is studying Advanced English, a course of eight-weeks duration.

In conjunction with the increasing enrollment of students in the program, which now numbers twenty-six, St. Michael's has found it necessary to add a new member to its faculty. Primarily through the recommendation of Mr. Boulay with whom she has had previous teaching experience, Miss Alice Thayer became the first female member of the SMC faculty. She began teaching at St. Michael's last summer and will continue teaching here indefinitely. In addition to teaching, Miss Thayer has completed college work in the field of art.

The English Program, which was adopted at St. Michael's one short year ago, has attracted students from all parts of the Western Hemisphere as far north as Canada and also as far south as Coloralica, Venezuela, El Salvador, Cuba, and Nicaragua.

SGT CAMPBELL JOINS CADRE

Staff Sergt. Morris D. Campbell has joined the Air Force ROTC Staff here.

Sergt. Campbell is a native of Milo, Maine, and has just reenlisted for four years. His home address is 42 Riverside St., Milo, Me.

He was stationed for 19 months at the Erding Air Depot in Germany and 22 months at Otis Air Force Base in Massachusetts.

Mrs. Campbell and their two daughters will join Sergt. Campbell as soon as two-week-old Jillaine is better able to travel.

Evening Session Starts 2nd Year

The evening division of St. Michael's begins its second year Monday, Oct. 3. Eight courses will be offered, twice the number given last year.

Courses are being offered in Biology, Education, History, Humanities, Political Science, Sociology and Theology. They may be taken for credit or pleasure. All but two of the courses may be taken for graduate credit with supplemental work.

INSTRUCTORS

Classes begin at 7:30 and 8:30 and run for 50 minutes.

Instructors and their subjects are:

Prof. John C. Hartnett, "Problems in Human Biology;"

Rev. James Coombs, S.S.E., "Tests and Measurements;"

Prof. James O'Beirne, "The World of the 20th Century;"

Dr. Richard Stoehr, "Music Appreciation;"

Prof. Joseph Lovering, "The Modern Novel;"

Dr. Robert Spencer, "Problems in American Democracy;"

Rev. Dr. Lorenzo D'Agostino, S.S.E., "Personal Psychology;"

Rev. Gerald E. Dupont, S.S.E., "Moral Theology."

WIDE COVERAGE

The Biology course will discuss the problems related to nutrition, behavior, reproduction, inheritance and evolution. It will discuss the Kinsey reports and the limitations of studies of animal behavior when applied to humans.

"Tests and Measurements" will study commonly used tests and methods of constructing scientific tests.

"World of the 20th Century" will be a historical study of international developments since World War One.

"Music Appreciation" will cover the origins, the fundamentals and means of musical expression.

"The Modern Novel" will analyze Maugham, Bennett, Wells, Joyce, Wolfe, Waugh, Dreiser, Hemingway, Lewis and others.

"Problems in American Democracy" will study the democracy at all levels of government.

"Personal Psychology" will discuss human personality and deviations from the ideal with a view to their prevention. It will also include some basic concepts of human emotions and psychiatry with emphasis on personal application.

"Moral Theology," a continuation from last year, will treat in detail the theological virtues of faith, hope and charity and the moral virtues of prudence, fortitude and temperance.
